

Regulations stallholders food and drink stands Japanese Garden

Article 1: Area of application

These regulations apply to everyone who participates as a stallholder with food and drink stands at the events organized by the City of Hasselt in the Japanese Garden or on regular, but busy days in the Japanese Garden.

With a “stallholder” these regulations mean the company and its personnel who have registered for the event organized by the City of Hasselt that takes place in the Japanese Garden or a specific day in the Japanese Garden and whose registration has been accepted as such by the City of Hasselt.

By registering, the exhibitor agrees with the contents of these regulations.

Article 2: Registration conditions events

Registration for an event must always take place at least 1 month in advance via e-mail to japansetuin@hasselt.be . At the latest 2 weeks before the event, the stallholder will receive the decisive answer whether he can or cannot have a stand at the event he registered for. Deviations of these deadlines is possible, only when notified by email before the end of the deadline.

To register, the stallholder must complete Appendix 1 to this document for each event for which he has registered. He always mentions exactly what he will sell, together with the selling price.

When registering for an event, the stallholder must provide following documents to qualify as stallholder:

For all stallholders:

- Valid verification document of the fire extinguisher
- Itinerant trader's card employer and the ID card that is linked to it
- Valid inspection document for installations running on gas/electricity
- Document of the FASFC (Federal Agency for the Safety of the Food Chain <http://www.favv.be/professionelen/erkenningen/aanvraag/> )

Extra documents for foodtrucks:

- Proof of fire insurance and insurance for civil liability

Based on Appendix 1, the ability to provide the necessary documents, the criteria mentioned below and depending on the number of seats available for the event, the stands for each event will be chosen, with the approval of the Hasselt College of Mayor and Aldermen.

Criteria that are considered when choosing the stallholders and their food en drinks they offer:

1. Japanese individuality of the goods to be sold
2. Link between the goods to be sold and the event held
3. History of cooperation with the Japanese Garden / City of Hasselt
4. Selling price of the goods

Article 3: Stand price and cancellation policy

The stallholder binds himself to paying a fee of € 100.00 per event day. The City of Hasselt will send a bill to the exhibitor after the event.

The stallholder can cancel free of charge up to 1 week before the event by sending an email to japanesegarden@hasselt.be.

If the stallholder does not cancel on time or is not present at the event for which he is registered, the City Hasselt will charge a € 100 bill as compensation fee.

Article 4: Liabilities of the stallholder

Each stallholder is expected to act in accordance with the Act of 25th June 1993 concerning the exercise and organization of ambulatory and fairground activity and the Royal Decree of 24th September 2006 concerning the execution and organization of itinerant trade.

The stallholder is solely responsible for the design and activities in and around his stand.

The stallholder will make sure that the food that he sells will not be sold out, at least until one hour before the closing time of the Japanese Garden that day. Stallholders that have sold out all their food at more than one hour before closing time, will be charged a penalty fee after the event of 50 euro per day.

The stallholder will bring along one (or if necessary several) extension cables. He also provides all the necessary materials he needs to make and sell his goods.

The stallholder will bring along a dry powder fire extinguisher and, if relevant to the goods to be sold, a fire blanket.

The stallholder will get the provided tables and chairs from the stack himself to use them at his/her stand. After the event, he also returns the tables and chairs to the stack.

The City of Hasselt cannot be held liable for any damage caused by the stallholder during the event.

The stallholder indemnifies the City of Hasselt against any claim by third parties, due to damage, however named, caused by the stallholder itself or its employees.

The stallholder commits himself to following the guidelines drawn up by the FASFC (Federal Agency for the Safety of the Food Chain).

A lockable waste bin must be present and must not contaminate the food. Waste must be removed regularly in the yellow waste bags of the City of Hasselt. The staff or volunteers of the Japanese Garden will bring these yellow waste bags to the yellow waste containers at the nearest service entrance.

Article 5: Obligations of the City of Hasselt:

If agreed in advance, the City of Hasselt will provide tables and chairs in proportion to the number of participating organizations.

The City of Hasselt commits itself to pay the amount of electricity and water consumed.

The City of Hasselt takes care of the organization and content of the event.

The City of Hasselt provides the publicity for the event on social media, as well as by the available offline communication channels.

Article 6: Rights of the City of Hasselt

City of Hasselt has the right to remove not-allowed products from the stand.

City of Hasselt has the right to assign a location to each stallholder, taking into account the size and needed facilities of each stand/foodtruck.

Article 7: Severability

In case any article in this regulation shall be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining articles shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

Article 8: Disputes

This regulation document is governed exclusively by Belgian law and is subject to the exclusive competence of the courts of Hasselt.

Article 9: GDPR

By registering, the stallholder automatically gives permission to the City of Hasselt to use their name for communication purposes. The City of Hasselt will also save the details of the stallholders to inform them of upcoming events and opportunities.

If the stallholder does not agree with this, the City of Hasselt must be notified by email to japanesegarden@hasselt.be .
